

EARNINGS UPDATE October 7, 2016

APHRIA INC.

(V-APH) $3.51 (intraday)

RATING: BUY TARGET: $4.25

(unchanged) (increased, previously $3.75)

Grams Sold in Q1 Exceeds Expectations

- EVENT: Aphria Inc. announced its first guarter results for the three month period ending August 31, 2016. Sales were $4.4M, EBITDA was $1.1M and EPS was $0.01.
- DISCUSSION: These results were above our expectations as we had forecasted $3.3M in sales, $1.0M in EBITDA and $0.01 per share in earnings.
- Grams of MMJ sold during the quarter were 585,200 we had modelled 408,480 grams. The average selling price per gram was $7.48, slightly lower than the price of $8.16 reported in Q4 FY16 (ending May 31).
- The reason for the lower average selling price per gram reported this quarter is likely due to strong wholesale business. Aphria sells to other licensed producers at a wholesale price of $3.75 - $4.25. The wholesale business was particularly strong during Q1 as several LPs had demand that exceeded internal production.
- Although APH no longer reports patient counts (management believes most patient count figures are fraught with inconsistencies) patient onboarding has been strong and the Company expects its wholesale business to contract as the demand from retail will require the majority of future production. This trend should positively impact margins in future quarters.
- Aphria was awarded a cannabis oil sales license at the end of its first quarter so there were no material sales. That said, we expect strong oil sales in Q2 as we estimate that up to 30% of future harvests will be converted into oil. Cannabis oil is expected to be a big seller for the entire sector as product can be assigned exact dosages for patients.
- $\blacktriangleright$ The balance sheet has \$53.5M in cash and \$7.0M in debt (\$1.2M 5-year term loan, \$3.7M mortgage and \$2.8M vendor take-back mortgage).
- FORECAST/OUTLOOK: We have increased our growth based on the better than expected grams sold, the upcoming cannabis oil sales and due to the generally strong patient on-boarding within the industry. Our new sales projections are $23.5M in FY17 (previously $17.9M), $43.4M in FY18 (previously $37.1M) and $104.5M in FY19 (previously $91.5M). Our EBITDA estimates also rise to $6.69M, $15.2M and $35.1M (previously $4.18M, $13.0M and $31.8M) in FY17, FY18 and FY19 respectively.
- VALUATION/RECOMMENDATION: We are maintaining our BUY rating (risk: SPECULATIVE) for Aphria Inc. (V-APH) but have increased our 12month target to $4.25 (previously $3.75) due to the increase in our estimates along with the increase in peer multiples - currently 11.8x (previously 10.3x) for EV/EBITDA (note: we dilute the high MMJ comp multiples with our small cap growth peers which trade at an average EV/EBITDA multiple of 8.4x).

Under certain circumstances, and at the discretion of the analyst, a recommendation may be applied for a shorter time period. The basis for the variability in the expected percentage change for a recommendation, relates to the differences in the risk ratings applied to individual stocks.
